Acknowledgments

I understand that being on the Texas A&M Mock Trial Team is a year-long commitment. If selected, I will stay on the team for the entire competitive season (except for any extenuating circumstances).

Yes No

I understand that I must be a full-time undergraduate/graduate student at Texas A&M University for both the fall and spring semesters in order to compete.

Yes No

I understand that being on the Texas A&M Mock Trial Team is a minimum 4-6 hour weekly time commitment. I will attend scheduled meetings, scrimmages, and tournaments (unless of an excused absence), and I will practice outside of meetings on my own time.

Short Answer Prompts

Answer all of the following prompts. You are allowed a maximum of 3 pages for your responses. You decide how much space to allocate to each response.

1. What did you gain from being on the team, and what do you hope to gain this year?
2. What was a challenge or weakness you faced on the team? Were you able to overcome that challenge or weakness? If so, how? If not, how do you plan to overcome that challenge?
3. Please provide a candid description/rating of how you believe you did in the following areas:
 - a. Performance at tournaments
 - b. Overall Professionalism
 - c. Attendance/Tardiness (this includes all required events, i.e. general meetings, extra team meetings/practices, scrimmages, and tournaments)
 - d. Teamwork
 - e. Mentorship
4. While on a team, imagine a scenario where you face a failure on a personal or team level (Ex: Not placing at a tournament). How would you handle the disappointment?
5. What is your favorite Texas A&M Mock Trial memory?
6. Please answer the following scenarios to the best of your knowledge while referencing the ROE. The purpose of these questions is not just to test whether or not you remember the ROE, but also if you can see and apply it to new scenarios. (Citations are not required; do it how you would do it in a round):

- a. In a civil case where the plaintiff is suing a corporation for purposefully mismanaging a chemical plant leading to chemical pollution, the plaintiff is attempting to use evidence of the company's insurance for their case. Specifically, the plaintiff is attempting to use the fact that more insurance was taken out for this specific plant in comparison to other plants owned by the company to prove the defendant knew the plant was at a higher risk.

Give the objection and rationale you would give as the defense and then the response you would make as the plaintiff:

- b. In a civil case, the plaintiff is cross-examing one of the defense witnesses, when the defense witness is asked if they believed the defendant could have committed the crime. To which the witness responds "Well yes it certainly seemed like they wanted it to happen all along"

Give the Objection and Rationale you would give as the defense and then the response you would make as the plaintiff:
